The Department of Justice (DOJ) Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) have disclosed limited records of Westminster College (Fulton, Missouri) August 29th 1986 invitation to then-Director William Webster. These records were disclosed by the FBI following a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request submitted by the Association for the Advancement of Civil Liberties (AACL) on or around October 12th 2021. It's the 2nd (second) time the Department of Justice (DOJ) have referred the AACL to the National Archives Records Administration (NARA) on issues not unrelated to the rape and murder of Jeanne Ann Clery.

The recent FBI disclosure show that Westminster College had extended an invitation to William Webster to "deliver the 1987 Commencement Address on Sunday, May 17, 1987 at 2:30 P.M." The August 29th 1986 letter was signed by Westminster College former President J. Harvey Saunders. On October 31st 1986, William Webster accepted the invitation of Westminster College, acknowledging his formal and informal ties to Westminster College as well as Callaway County.

The rape and murder of Jeanne Ann Clery continues to leave several key questions about Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 unaddressed. These questions include but are not limited to the following. 1) What are/were colleges/universities in the U.S.A obligated pursuant to Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972? Were colleges/universities throughout the U.S.A required by law to denounce violence committed against women irrespective of their racial backgrounds, their sexual orientations, their religious affiliations and their national origins following the enactment of Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972? If yes, were colleges/universities required to inform their students about what constitute appropriate sexual boundaries pursuant to Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972? 2) Did colleges/universities throughout the U.S.A begin informing their students about what constitute "affirmative and effective consent" following the enactment of Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972? If not, when did colleges/universities begin to inform their incoming freshmen/transfer students about the concepts of "affirmative and effective consent"? Did colleges/universities throughout the U.S.A begin teaching the concepts of "affirmative and effective consent" to their incoming freshmen/transfer students following the rape and murder of Jeanne Ann Clery (dated April 05th 1986)? If yes, why have colleges/universities throughout the U.S.A fixated on the rape and murder of this Caucasian woman by a Black/African American man to inform their incoming freshmen/transfer students about what constitutes "affirmative and effective consent"? 3) Are colleges/universities discussions pertaining to what constitutes "affirmative and effective consent" consistent with their intent with Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 if they are first informing their incoming freshmen/transfer students about the rape and murder of Jeanne Ann Clery? Are colleges/universities discussions pertaining to what constitutes "affirmative and effective consent" consistent with their academic integrity policy if they are first informing their incoming freshmen/transfer students about the rape and murder of Jeanne Ann Clery?

Take care.

Notes

Are you a student of a U.S college/university? Are you an alumnus/alumna of a college/university in the U.S.A? Have you previously faced uncorroborated and racially motivated allegations of academic cheating as an undergraduate student? Has the uncorroborated and racially motivated allegation of academic cheating reached the person who's serving as the Dean of Student in your college/university? Have you read the Annual Security Report (ASR) published by the college/university you are/were attending, which is published pursuant to the Jeanne Ann Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act? How were you informed about "affirmative and effective consent"? Were you informed about "affirmative and effective consent" after having been told about the rape and murder of Jeanne Ann Clery on the campus of Lehigh University? Were you informed about "affirmative and effective consent" after having been told about the rape and murder of a Caucasian woman by a Black/African American? Is the way you have been informed about "affirmative and effective consent" academically, historically and socially responsible given the U.S. A well documented history of slavery as well as systemic chauvinism, discrimination, misogyny, racism and sexism? Were there forces out there in the 1970s and the 1980s looking for a case where a Black man rapes and murders a Caucasian woman for the purpose of enacting a law similar to the Jeanne Clery Act? Was the enactment of the Jeanne Clery Act the result of racist and sexist individuals coming together for the purpose of [a] preventing racial minorities from climbing the social ladder through academic education; [b] cracking down on interracial relationships particularly between a Caucasian woman and a Black/African American man; [c] not applying the same standards in circumstances where a Caucasian man sexually assaults a woman from a racial minority (as in the case of Brock Turner and Chanel Miller following her rape on January 18th 2015 at the campus of Stanford University)?

Deleting and Delisting Michael A. Ayele (a.k.a) W's Work From the Internet Archive

This is Michael A. Ayele sending this message though I now go by W and I prefer to be referred to as such.

I am contacting the Internet Archive because it has recently come to my attention that many of my published work continue to be featured on the Internet Archive scholar website.

As previously mentioned, I don't want to have my name, my image, my likeness and my written content featured on the Internet Archive or on the Internet Archive scholar.

Therefore, I am contacting you to ask that I be delisted from the Internet Archive Scholar immediately.

The uniform resource locator (URL) I would like you to delete from the website of the Internet Archive are as follows.

This is Michael A. Ayle sending this message though I now go by W and I prefer to be referred to as such.

I am writing this letter to figshare because I want to delete research, which I had previously published on my Figshare account.

Unfortunately, I am unable to manually delete the research I had previously published to my figshare account and I need your assistance to accomplish this objective.

The link to my published research on figshare I would like to have deleted are as follows: <https://doi.org/10.6084/m9.figshare.27569463.v1>, <https://doi.org/10.6084/m9.figshare.27312861.v1>, <https://doi.org/10.6084/m9.figshare.27744927.v1>, <https://doi.org/10.6084/m9.figshare.27641019.v1>.

The reason I would like to have these publications taken down is because I don't want my name, my image and my likeness to be associated with figshare.

I sincerely pray that I never have to contact figshare again.

At the time I submitted my take down request, I had specifically told you that I wanted to be referred to as W.

You and I are not on a first name basis.

If you insist on being formal with me and you insist on using my government first name, then I will insist that you add a "Mr." before using my government first name.

Familiarity is not a mechanism that should be used to breed contempt.

I shall hope that I will never have to contact figshare again.
